

To all of our Southern Heritage customers, friends, acquaintances and loyalists!

In this, our 21st year of promoting the spirit of the Old South and it's heritage, we pause to thank each and everyone who has so heartedly supported our efforts to continue its legacy.

What began as a pioneering venture of producing the country's only Confederate themed checks in an even MORE "politically correct" society than was imagined, it has withstood the test of time and has blossomed into an enterprise which additionally offers an array of products showcasing traditions, symbols, and a way of life appreciated by all proud Southerners.

On the following pages of this, our second catalogue, we're confident that you will find something to your liking as well as for that special someone on your Christmas or "any occasion" list. We add only items to our inventory that embody the spirit of the Old South - nothing vain nor demeaning to our precious Southern Heritage. Our high quality products make giving a pleasure and creates pride in both the giver and the recipient.

We shall furnish supplements as additional and interesting merchandise is added to our already exciting inventory. Seeking something not shown here? Kindly contact us. Every effort will be made to accomodate.

We invite you to order by mail, telephone, e-mail or fax. Additionally, we now offer the ability to purchase all of our products online. Please visit our website at www.oldesouthltd.com and click the link for the online store.

As always, satisfaction assured or your money cheerfully refunded - except special edition items on pages 9, 10, 35 & 46.

A portion of each sale benefits the preservation of our Southern Heritage.

God bless the South - it's rising again!

The Legacy Endures...

...through our classic check and address label designs.

Show your pride in Southern Heritage, while paying tribute to the courageous people who gave the ultimate sacrifice to protect our way of life. Every check written and label used will distinguish you as a true Southern Patriot. A portion of each sale benefits the preservation of Southern Heritage.

Orders will be mailed to the address printed on your checks. Allow 5 to 6 weeks for delivery. Questions, call (800) 779-6501 or fax (800) 763-1845

A Classic Southern Tribute

A masterfully double-matted framed sheet of uncirculated Stone Mountain Memorial 6 cents stamps commissioned by the US Postal Service on September 19, 1970, in recognition of the mountain's official dedication on May 9, 1970.

Showcased is the prominence of heroic Southern Generals Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson, along with President Jefferson Davis, so eloquently carved on its historic face.

Complementing this classic are 2 near-mint condition (MS64 and MS65) Stone Mountain half-dollars, circa 1925 - 1 displaying the obverse, the other its reverse. This 14"x18" special edition museum quality keepsake will grace that special "Wall of Honor".

Attractively priced at $650.00.

A SOBERING OBSERVATION

Prohibition of the Lord's Prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance in most schools because the word "God" is mentioned, inspired a child in Arizona to compose the following new school prayer:

*Now I sit me down in school,
Where praying is against the rule.
For this great nation under God,
Finds mention of him very odd.
If scripture now the class recites,
It violates the bill of rights.
And anytime my head I bow,
Becomes a federal matter now.*

*Our hair can be purple, orange or green,
That's no offense; it's a freedom scene.
The law is specific, the law is precise,
Prayers spoken aloud are a serious vice.*

*For praying in a public hall,
Offends those with no faith at all!
In silence alone we meditate,
God's name is prohibited by the state.*

*We're allowed to cuss and dress like freaks,
And pierce our noses, tongues and cheeks.
They've outlawed guns, but first the Bible.
To quote the good book makes me liable.*

*We elect a pregnant senior queen,
And the unwed daddy our senior king.
It's inappropriate to teach right from wrong,
We're taught that such 'judgments' do not belong.*

*We can get our condoms and birth controls,
Study witchcraft, vampires and totem poles.
The Ten Commandments are not allowed,
No word of God must reach this crowd.*

*It's scary here I must confess,
When chaos reigns, the school's a mess.
So, Lord, this silent plea I make:
Should I be shot, my soul please take!
Amen.*

If you aren't ashamed to do so, please pass this on. Jesus said "If you are ashamed of me, I will be ashamed of you before my Father."

Author, historian, and researcher Glenn Dedmond offers a series of publications covering those flags of Alabama, Arkansas, Missouri, North Carolina, and South Carolina. His works provide a wealth of information to those who appreciate the bravery and the cause for independence these banners represent.

Though not Mr. Dedmond's works, publications of the remaining states Louisiana, Tennessee, and Texas adequately cover their history.

Ernie Lowery, one of our very own, shares his boyhood experiences of the hard work and determination needed to survive -- real life adventures that rival those of the lovable fictional Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

These times, reminiscent of the era's many, so controversially ignored by today's "Politically Correct" media, give the reader a sobering observation of every poor, but proud, Southerner. An absolute must read!

I LOVE BEING SOUTHERN

- Only a Southerner knows the difference between a hissie fit and a conniption fit and that you don't "HAVE" them, you "PITCH" them!
- Only a Southerner can show or point to the general direction of "yonder".
- Only a Southerner knows exactly how long "directly" is – as in: "Going to town, be back directly".
- Even Southern babies know that "Gimme some sugar" is not a request for the white, granular sweet substance that sits in a pretty little bowl in the middle of the table.
- All Southerners know exactly when "by and by" is. They might not use the term, but they know the concept well.
- Only Southerners grow up knowing the difference between "right near" and "right far piece". They also know that "just down the road" can be 1 mile or 20.
- No true Southerner would ever assume that the car with the flashin' turn signal is actually going to make a turn.
- A Southerner knows that "fixin'" can be used as a noun, a verb, or an adverb.
- Only Southerners make friends while standing in lines and when they are, they talk to everyone.
- When you hear someone say, "Well, I caught myself lookin'" you know you are in the presence of a genuine Southerner!
- Put 100 Southerners in a room and half of them will discover they're related, even if only by marriage.
- Southerners never refer to one person as "y'all" and they never ever say "you guys"!
- Southerners know grits come from corn and how to eat them.
- Only a Southerner knows how many fish, collard greens, turnip greens, peas, beans, etc. make up a "mess".
- Every Southerner knows tomatoes with eggs, bacon, grits, red eye gravy, and coffee are perfectly wonderful breakfast foods; fried green tomatoes are not.
- Every Southerner's summer delight is that seasonal delicacy, "New Crop" boiled peanuts!
- Only true Southerners say "sweet tea" and "sweet milk". Sweet tea indicates the need for sugar and lots of it. "Sweet milk" means you don't want buttermilk!
- Only a Southerner knows instinctively that the best gesture of solace for a neighbor who has trouble is a plate of hot fried chicken and a big bowl of cold potato salad. If the neighbor's trouble is a real crisis, they also know to add a large banana puddin'!
- True Southerners know not to scream obscenities at little old ladies who drive 30 MPH along the freeway. They simply pass, say, "Bless her heart", and go on their merry way.
- To those of you who are still having a hard time understanding all this Southern stuff, bless your hearts! I hear they are fixin' to have classes on Southerness as a second language!
- And for those who are not from the South, but who have lived here a long time, y'all need to hang a sign on your front porch that reads, "I ain't from the South, but I got here as fast as I could!"

BLESS YOUR HEARTS -- Y'ALL HAVE A BLESSED DAY!

The “TAPS” Story

The origination of “Taps”, played at military funerals, all began in July, 1862.

During the War Between the States, Union Army Captain, Robert Ellicombe and his men were camped near Harrison’s Landing in Virginia. The Confederate Army occupied the other side of this narrow land strip.

During the night, Captain Ellicombe heard the moan of a soldier who lay critically wounded on the battlefield. Not knowing if he was Union or Confederate, he opted to risk his life and bring the stricken man back for medical attention. Crawling on his stomach through gunfire, he reached the soldier and slowly began pulling him back toward the encampment. Finally returning to his own lines, he discovered it was a dead Confederate.

Lighting a lantern, the Captain suddenly caught his breath and went numb with shock. In the dim light he saw the soldier’s face -- his own son! (The young man had been studying music in the South when the war broke out, and without telling his father, had enlisted in the Confederate Army.)

The following morning, the heart-broken father asked his superiors for permission to give his son a decent funeral. The request was denied since the soldier was Confederate. However, out of respect for the Captain, they consented to his having one musician. The Captain chose a bugler and at his request, the bugler played a series of musical notes that had been found in the youth’s uniform. Those notes, blown through that bugle, created the haunting, captivating melody we know today as “TAPS”!
